SA [redacted] Computer Analysis and Response Team (CART) Field Examiner (FE), conducted the following computer examinations as outlined below. These examinations were completed using the procedures and tools approved by the FBI Laboratory.

The following computers/computer hard drives were analyzed:

Q Number	Harddrive	Size	Serial #
Q1	Western Digital AC24300L	4310Mb

b7C

The following forensic evaluations were accomplished:

- Image copies created
- Directory Listings
- Recover deleted files
- Recover unused space (slack)
- Text string searches
- Logical files copied

On 4/23/99, an image copy of the original hard disk was temporarily stored on a portable computer. After the image was created, it was verified for write accuracy (Safeback Verify), copied to Magneto Optical Disk (MOC) and verified again for accuracy.

The date and time stamp of the original computer was noted to be approximately the same as the actual date and time.

This computer uses the Windows 95 operating system and was partitioned into two drives. Only the first partition contained a logical file structure, therefore it was the only one analyzed. This partition contains 9,855 active files contained within 1,893 directories. 1,261 previously deleted files were recovered.

CS was utilizing an Internet chatroom program called ICQ on [redacted] when he began a dialog with an individual with the screen name [redacted] stated that he had spent time in chatrooms with the above captioned subjects before the shooting and that their ICQ screen names were 'Zombie White' and 'Hitler Jew'. They had told [redacted] that their leader had the ICQ nickname CD-R. CD-R was a 'Nazi' and warned them that if they didn't kill themselves they wouldn't go to heaven.

The above captioned subjects also reportedly told [redacted] that the 'next hit' would be made by three other Nazis in Chicago on May 24. The targets for this hit are supposed to be Russians instead of Blacks. May 24th is selected because it is the anniversary of Hitler's first battle victory. Additionally, New York is supposed to be 'hit' on June 30. Repeated attempts by CS to elicit further information from [redacted] were unsuccessful. Last

It is confirmed:

Eric Harris & Dylan Klebold were Marilyn Manson Fans.

Dylan Klebold wrote an E-mail to the owner of a very popular Marilyn Manson website called www.angelmanson.com. This E-Mail will be featured in TIME Magazine and other major news sources. TIME magazine is already interviewing the Webmaster of the Marilyn Manson website.
The webmaster "Gabriel York" keeps an archive of all the responses people send to him.

The E-Mail was written in December 1998.

It answers many questions as to why Dylan Klebold was so angry at his fellow classmates.

Here is the E-Mail in it's entirety:

It is Response Number 276:

Response Number: 276

Dear Gabriel York, (www.angelmanson.com)

Thank you for making this website. It has opened my eyes to many different perspectives.
Now I see the TRUTH about the world. Nobody seems to care about anybody else. And school is just a place that imprisons teenagers from getting in trouble on the outside. I think what the flyers on your website say is correct. "School never taught the truth about Humanity."
They constantly feed us lies. Some of us are smart enough to recognize the lies, the others

just blindly sit there absorbing useless information. Some days I sit in my room and get so angry at everything. I turn on the radio and they play the same crappy music over and over.
The band I hate the most are the Backstreet Boys because they are creating a whole generation of stupid screaming teenage girls who believe their false ideas of love. They don't even realize the dent they are putting in our youth. These girls will grow up to be weak followers instead of strong leaders. I see this at school everyday and it pisses me off. I just wish this world wasn't so stupid. Something needs to slap them into reality.

Well I gotta go now.

Let me know when you update your website.

Peace, Love, and Betrayal

Dear Gabriel York, (www.angelmanson.com)

You've heard these comments so many times before, but this website is excellent. You've opened up Marilyn Manson's positive side. Keep up the good work!"

[redacted]@stelusplanet.net [redacted]

Response Number: 267

Dear Gabriel York, (www.angelmanson.com)

I've enjoyed your page. It helped me see who Marilyn Manson was. It helped me see who I was. I really appreciate what Marilyn Manson is doing for everyone, they'll end up thanking him in the end. I only wish I could do something for humankind but it seems the only way you can is by becoming famous".

[redacted]@atlantic.net [redacted]

Response Number: 268

Dear Gabriel York, (www.angelmanson.com)

My God where have people like you been residing for so long. I just got off this website about Marilyn Manson being a shepherd to society's flock of Mansonite followers and this site has put tears to my eyes. Never have I seen a site like this one so creative, original, thought-provoking, and emotional. I love this site. This is the truth and individuality that I have been searching for ever since I first heard Antichrist Superstar. Marilyn Manson's music touches me in a way that no other group can. The light shows us the way but the darkness forces us to choose the right path. E-mail me back I am looking forward to hearing from you."

[redacted]@aol.com [redacted]

Response Number: 269

Dear Gabriel York, (www.angelmanson.com)

I know I've emailed you before about your page but it just keeps getting better. A while ago I was looking around the web for some manson sites and found very few even mentioned the positive side. Most were filled with shock symbols and little boxes that say 666 or satan rules. And almost all of them began with something like "MARILYN MANSEN RULZ!!!! SATAN RULZ!!" I just thought you should know how great your page is compared to most of the shit out there."

[redacted]@aol.com [redacted]

Response Number: 270

Dear Gabriel York, (www.angelmanson.com)

You did a really beautiful job with your work. It is a difficult thing to sort through all the interviews, genius quotes, and information that you pulled out to assemble into what Marilyn's message really is for people. Many get really confused about what he is trying to say, so if it is all organized in front of them it makes it so much easier. It really is hard to talk to people and explain things to them because most are so horribly misinformed and ignorant of what MM is about. It angers me to see people on the news protesting the band's ideals and these people have no idea what they are talking about. It's too bad everyone can't see the important truths expressed in his music and his word. There are the people who you have reached with this and these people have hopefully more opened eyes because of it. I writing to give you my respect and thanks. [redacted]@avenus.net [redacted]

[redacted]

Response Number: 271

Dear Gabriel York, (www.angelmanson.com)

I can certainly say the world finally needed a page telling the truths about Marilyn Manson. Too many pages out there keep saying he is 'evil' or satanic. It gets irritating, since I know REAL satanists, and I know what real satanism is about, though I do not practice it, I can say he is not satanic. He is merely stating how people should grow beyond the confines of Society and become their true selves.

[redacted]@plazma.net [redacted]

Response Number: 272

Dear Gabriel York, (www.angelmanson.com)

I love your site! I am a fan of Marilyn Manson in the same way you are. You know you have to see through all the bullshit opinions and go for the facts and the quotes, then the lies will fade out and the truth will become apparent. I am 21, from Millet, Alberta in Canada and Marilyn Manson is coming July 26th for his Anti-Christ Superstar tour and I can't contain myself I'm so pumped to see the him in the flesh and in person! I use Marilyn Manson's philosophies in my everyday life to alter my reality to a comfortable level of existance. I can tell you what it has done for me: I was fcked around by some slut that stole my cash, physically and mentally abused me when she felt like it and controlled all my freedoms and desires. This went on for three years and we were going to get married! I finally broke up with her after she had cheated on me three or more times (I'm not sure how many times...)

It's been a year now. I wish to thank Marilyn Manson, Trent Reznor and people like yourself who push through the bullshit to see the facts on important issues...and of course, the facts on our very existance. [redacted]@glink2.com [redacted]

Response Number: 273

Dear Gabriel York, (www.angelmanson.com)

You have an excellent page. It's good to see something true about Marilyn Manson. Not crap like. "Satan's here!!! I'm 14 years old and I'm from Finland. That's why I didn't understand all the words but I still understood most of the ideas. I hope that Marilyn Manson would come to Finland someday.

[redacted]@tele.fi [redacted]

Response Number: 274

Dear Gabriel York, (www.angelmanson.com)

I think you have a very good page and it is the only Marilyn Manson page that actually helped me understand him and his message. I have always like Marilyn Manson but never could quite figure his complete message out. His personal quotes helped me understand what he is thinking. Although I do have one question. Does he believe in christianity any, because he is always referring himself as the one who helps us repent by showing us his extremity but then wouldn't that mean whoever listened to him would be the exact opposite of what he is trying to do. because those who listen to him agree with his extremity but those are the people that he has to reach. But, anyways, I like your page a lot. Thank you.

how manson looks and how he writes music, people put a label on him that says "hey. i am the devil and i hate everything." i mean, he's not the devil and he doesn't hate everything. i especially like the quote that says something like "america is looking for a scapegoat. well here i am." that's awesome. the world always has to put a label on everything that isn't "normal." it's pretty stupid. i look up to manson, but i wouldn't kill myself because of

Dear Sirs,

I recently heard that the FBI served a search warrant on AOL to obtain documents and evidence from the Website of the youths involved in the Colorado School killings. Perhaps evidence had been removed from the Website before the FBI had served the warrant.

In the event of such a happening I have the following files downloaded from the following URLs:

I heard that you want the web page made by the Trench Coat Mafia. I believe I have a part of the web page, one that includes bomb-making and remote detonating instructions and also some drawings of satan and guys shooting people. I can confirm this if you know the screen name of the younger one, because I know it. It is "REB Domine". If this is correct, please contact me and I will give you the page that I have. [redacted] was interviewed at his residence, [redacted] Littleton, Colorado regarding the shooting at Columbine High School (CHS). After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] at Columbine High School.

On the day of the shooting, [redacted] left his 3rd period class at the end of the class period and walked to his locker. From his locker [redacted] walked to Polk St., near an alley, where he ate a lunch that he had brought to school (bagels). [redacted] was with two of his friends, [redacted] when he ate his lunch. [redacted] did not go in the cafeteria on the day of the shooting. [redacted] did not see any bags or propane tanks in the hallway as he was leaving the building after third period. [redacted] does not know what time 4th period ends and does not know the time that he ate lunch.

b7C
b7D

After eating his lunch, [redacted] walked to an area on the soccer field near a shed. [redacted] thinks it took approximately one minute to walk from Polk Street to the soccer field near the shed. [redacted] were with [redacted] as he was walking at the soccer field. [redacted] saw 5 or 6 other people near the shed. [redacted] had been on the soccer field for approximately five minutes when he heard what he thought were firecrackers coming from an area near the school, on the north side of the school. [redacted] could not tell how many "firecrackers" exploded.

[redacted] looked towards the school and saw a short, pudgy male, wearing a white T-shirt, and throwing something onto the roof of the school near the electrical transformers. [redacted] heard and explosion and saw dust on the roof soon after. [redacted] could provide no further description of this person and did not see this person with a gun.

[redacted] then saw another male, whom he could not describe, shooting a shotgun towards the senior parking lot. This individual was standing on the upper level, north of the parking lot and near the school building, approximately 30 yards southwest of the first male. [REDACTED] is familiar with the sound of a shotgun from times he has gone shooting with his father. [REDACTED] heard this shotgun and another, different, gun being shot but he did not see a second gun. [REDACTED] does not know how many rounds were fired towards the senior parking lot. [REDACTED] saw 3 or 4 people in the senior parking lot as the second male was firing into the lot. [REDACTED] saw these people drop to the ground but does not know if they were shot.

The second male then turned towards the soccer field and fired 5 or 6 rapid fire shotgun blasts towards people on the soccer field. [REDACTED] saw one person get shot near the edge of the soccer field that is closest to the school. [REDACTED] then saw a second person get shot on the soccer field. This person was located to the west, southwest of the first person who got shot. [REDACTED] thinks that one of the persons who was shot was shot in the ankle. There were approximately 10 or 11 people on the soccer field at this time.

b7D

[REDACTED] saw a pump handle on the shotgun that the second individual was holding and a black barrel. [REDACTED] did not see any other weapons. [REDACTED] started running after the second individual fired towards the soccer field. The three ran to a house located at [REDACTED] W. Polk Ave., where they called the police. [REDACTED] thinks that there were 15 to 16 students who ran to the house. In addition to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] remembers seeing [REDACTED] at the house. [REDACTED] went to Pinata's restaurant following the shooting where he was able to eat a free meal.

From the time [REDACTED] heard the firecrackers to the time he started running was approximately one minute. [REDACTED] did not hear the individuals say anything and thinks that some of the shots he heard from the gun which was not a shotgun might have been explosions. [REDACTED] did not see the second individual reload his shotgun.

[REDACTED] does not know Eric Harris or Dylan Klebold. He could not identify the two individuals he saw near the school due to the fact that he was approximately 60 yards away from them.

[REDACTED] knows one member of the trenchcoat mafia, [REDACTED] knows of [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] sister [REDACTED] [REDACTED] also

Student recounts school shooting

The Washington Post
LITTLETON, Colo. — Lance Kirklin strolled out of the cafeteria to sneak a smoke with two friends at Columbine High School when two shadows appeared about 50 feet away.

Within seconds, there was gunfire. More than a half-dozen bullets fired from a shotgun, a rifle and a TEC-DC 9 handgun pierced the three boys from head to toe. When it ended, one youth was dead, and Kirklin, who initially thought it was a senior prank, and another boy were injured.

As Kirklin lay on the ground, blood oozed from his leg and the left side of his face, part of which had been shattered by the shotgun blast. The triggermen said nothing and moved on to their next victims.

The three were among the first casualties of last month's shooting massacre at the school, which claimed 15 lives, including the two gunmen. Kirklin is among five students still hospitalized. He appeared publicly Friday for the first time since the April 20 rampage.

"I thought it was a dream," Kirklin, 16, said at a news conference at Denver Health Medical Center.

Joined by his parents, Michael and Dawn, and his three doctors, Kirklin relived the chilling moments that changed his life. Kirklin walked slowly with the help of crutches and sat in a chair cushioned with two bed pillows.

"I feel great," he said, muttering a smile. But "it's hard to get back to normal."

He said he believes he and his two friends were random victims. He said he cannot identify the shooters, although he remained conscious for 10 minutes afterward. A triage nurse held his head until two paramedics rescued him and whisked him to the hospital, where he remained in intensive care for two weeks. His condition has been upgraded to fair.

The most gravely injured survivor, Kirklin was shot in the face, chest, groin, leg and foot. He has undergone nearly 30 hours of surgery, including a tracheotomy and skin grafts to replace the golf-ball-size hole in his jaw.

"I had to learn to walk," a barely audible Kirklin said while placing his right hand on a bandage covering his throat. "It's been real emotional at times."

Since the shooting, Kirklin, a sophomore, has visited regularly with family and friends. He has talked with the paramedics who helped save his life. And Aerosmith, his favorite band, dedicated a recent concert to him.

"Lance took the full force of that blast," said Ernest Moore, chief of surgery and trauma services at DHMC. "His sheer survival is a miracle."

The shotgun blast was at close range, and a 9mm bullet remains lodged behind Kirklin's left knee, Moore said. One of three shotgun pellets also remains in a heart ventricle. A section of his bone and soft tissue in one leg was removed and was attached to the jaw.

Kirklin undergoes physical therapy and could be released within 10 days. He will have at least six more surgeries.
